Understanding Jurisprudence The Philosophy of Law

Imagine jurisprudence as the theoretical foundation of law Its not about specific statutes or court cases but rather the philosophical study of laws nature purpose and application Think of it as the why behind the what of the legal system Different schools of jurisprudence offer varying perspectives

Natural Law

This theory posits that law is inherent and discoverable through reason reflecting universal moral principles For example a natural law theorist might argue that a law prohibiting murder is inherently just because it reflects a fundamental human right to life Think of it as laws written in the book of nature

Legal Positivism

This approach focuses solely on the written law regardless of its moral content A legal positivist would argue that a law is valid simply because its been enacted by a legitimate authority even if they personally disagree with its morality Its about the process of lawmaking not the inherent rightness of the law

Legal Realism

This school emphasizes the practical application of law and the role of judges in shaping legal outcomes Legal realists point out that the law is often ambiguous and judges personal biases and societal influences can significantly impact their decisions
